

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
MECKLENBURG COUNTY

IN THE GENERAL COURT OF JUSTICE
SUPERIOR COURT DIVISION
12 CVS 20909

TAIDOC TECHNOLOGY
CORPORATION,

Plaintiff,

v.

OK BIOTECH CO., LTD.,

Defendant.

ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on Plaintiff Taidoc Technology Corporation's ("Plaintiff") Motion for Protective Order, Motion to Enforce Deposition Subpoena, and Motion to Compel, and Defendant OK Biotech Company, Ltd.'s Motion for Protective Order in the above-captioned case.

After considering the Motions, briefs, and arguments of counsel at the June 5, 2014 hearing, the Court concludes that the parties are not entitled to the relief requested in Plaintiff's Motion for Protective Order and Defendant's Motion for Protective Order. Accordingly, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion for Protective Order and Defendant's Motion for Protective Order.

However, the Court concludes that Plaintiff is entitled to the relief requested in its Motion to Compel and Motion to Enforce Deposition Subpoena, with reasonable limitations.

IT IS THEREFORE DECREED, ADJUDGED, and ORDERED as follows:

1. Defendant shall produce documents requested in Plaintiff's First Requests for Production served on January 17, 2014 within thirty (30) days from the entry of this Order;

2. Plaintiff may take the depositions of non-parties Prodigy Diabetes Care, LLC, Richard Admani, and Ramzi Abulhaj (collectively the “Prodigy Non-parties”), but only as to matters not addressed by prior depositions of these witnesses;
3. Should Plaintiff choose to depose any of the Prodigy Non-parties, it shall bear the fees and costs associated with any deposition, including the attorney’s fees of the deposed Prodigy Non-party;
4. The Court reserves the right to reallocate costs of the discovery associated with Plaintiff’s Motion to Compel; and
5. All other requested relief is DENIED.

SO ORDERED, this the 10th day of June, 2014.
